However, utilising our extensive experience we can provide you with solutions to recover retention and overcome the frequent excuses used to delay or avoid payment.

Our Retention Recovery Service offers:

- Solutions from specialist construction lawyers with a wealth of experience in this area.
- Commercial advice on the legal options available for recovery of the money.
- Retention recovery conducted by solicitors who are experts in dispute resolution.

What we do

Our approach is to use appropriate and effective retention recovery solutions tailored to your circumstances.

Some of the solutions we offer include: contractual strategies, forcefully written letters of demand, professional negotiation services and advice on effective record keeping, statutory demands and/or winding up proceedings and formal adjudication, arbitration or court proceedings.

Exploiting our invaluable experience and expertise, we are able to get results swiftly, efficiently and commercially.
