We'd like to invite you to an interactive breakfast seminar, exploring fire safety in the construction industry.

In the wake of major events and subsequent changes in legislation, it's essential to take stock of the current landscape, and how it impacts your construction business.

WHAT WE'LL DISCUSS

- Recent changes in legislation and the current state of play regarding liability for cladding and external façades.
- Insurance challenges caused by the problems facing the industry and what you can do to access PI/other relevant insurances.
- Practical steps you can take to prepare for the inevitable impact of legislative changes and insurance challenges.
